Rediscovering the Authentic Self in Mid-life: An Expressive Art Workshop for Therapists

Saturday ♦ August 8th

9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

At the

The ArtsCenter in Carrboro—West End Theatre

300-G E. Main Street ♦ Carrboro, NC 27510

This full-day interactive workshop is designed for mental health professionals and others who work therapeutically with middle aged adults. Participants will learn how to use a variety of creative action methods to help their clients to work through issues that are common to individuals in mid-life. The workshop will involve both a didactic and experiential component.

Participants should wear comfortable, casual clothing as we will be working with a variety of art materials. For more information, please contact Dr. Steevie Jane Parks at 919-918-1014, or email createahealthymind@earthlink.net.

Registration Fee: (Registration Fees include two breaks and all training materials. Lunch is on your own.)
